THE vote on the debenture by-law, on Monday last, stood yeas 60, nays 40. As the by-law could only be carried by a two-thirds majority it was defeated.

THE Nebraska delegates, who visited Edmonton some weeks ago, in company with Messrs. Gadsden and Mitchell-Innis, have purchased 6,000 acres of land near Olds station on the C. & E. Thirty-five farmers will leave Nebraska next spring for Olds.

THE papers mention that Chas. Stiff, division superintendent of the Grand Trunk at Hamilton, has been discharged, together with ten men employed in his office, as a measure of economy. Mr. Stiff has been in the employ of the G. T. R. for many years. He is a brother of W. Stiff, of Edmonton.

FIFTEEN months of a large weekly paper, from 12 to 16 pages each issue, together with a splendid portrait, all for the sum of $1. It is made by the Winnipeg Weekly Tribune, the largest paper published in Manitoba and the Northwest. The Weekly Tribune contains all the news of the week and has rapidly pushed to the front as the great family newspaper of this country. It is sent from the present time to the first of January, 1894, for $1—the balance of this year free. Every subscriber is given the choice of one of five magnificent portraits of the following: The late Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, ex-premier of Canada; Sir John Caldwell Abbott, premier of Canada; Sir Oliver Mowat, premier of Ontario; Sir John Thompson, minister of justice and leader of the government; Hon. THE following gem is from the Calgary Herald of October 17th: "It is reported this afternoon that the Edmonton train is stuck fast in the snow at McPherson's Coulee, about 20 miles out. Snow fell at Edmonton to the depth of 4 feet." This is the paper that parades its good will to Edmonton so prominently—on occasion—and then lies us under 3½ feet more snow than we have.

W. F. GOVIN, government engineer has completed his preliminary surveys for a bridge across the Saskatchewan, at Edmonton. He has taken complete measurements of the river crossings at the present lower ferry and at the old H. B. crossing, not the present upper ferry crossing, near the point below the H. B. fort, with the trails present and possible leading thereto. He considers the crossing good at either point. Second street on the H. B. property would be the route out of the river valley common to both bridge sites. Mr. Govin and Mr. St. Laurent leave for Winnipeg on Friday's train. The bridge plans are to be in Ottawa by November 15th.

J. E. FORSLUND, C. P. R. immigration agent, has been visiting the German colonies in the Edmonton district during the past week. He reports the Beaver Hills colony, east of Fort Saskatchewan, as the most progressive of the three colonies. Mr. Forslund published the Scandinavian Canadian of Winnipeg for several years. He is a Swede and is particularly interested in promoting Swedish immigration. He reports the prospects good for a large influx of Swedes from the Eastern States to the country around Wetaskawin next season. As a rule it is useless to say anything about prices in an advertisement as each claims to sell cheaper than his neighbor and such statements are usually taken for what they are worth. But as regards any of the above lines I intend to excel for this season any way, and a comparison of goods and prices will certainly convince the most skeptical that there has been a revolution in prices.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, OCTOBER 20, 1892

THE DEBENTURE BY-LAW.

The vote on the ten thousand dollar debenture by-law of Monday last must be accepted as a declaration by the ratepayers that the credit of our town is to be preserved for use in important contingencies, and not to be eaten up by current expenses or local improvements, which, if they cannot be met by frontage tax, can wait. If we were in the fortunate position of having no contingencies to face, if we had nothing to contend against, or did not know that we had, no doubt the result of the vote would have been different. Very few people could be persuaded to vote against a comparatively small expenditure, merely because they did not approve of it or thought it was premature. The history of all towns in Manitoba and the Northwest shows that in such cases the universal practice is for objectors to let their objections go by default, and allow those who wish to make the expenditure to have their way. That this was not the case in Edmonton on Monday last was not because our people are radically different from those of other towns; but because a large number of property holders realize clearly that while our position and situation as a town is particularly fortunate in some respects it also has disadvantages which must be overcome if we are to prosper as we expect and retain the position which we now hold, as the centre of commerce and authority for the upper Saskatchewan valley and the Mackenzie basin. There is a prize here worth contending for. It is in our hands at present. Others know its value, and will exert every effort to seize it from us for themselves; therefore just as we are contending for a greater prize we must use better judgment than has been used by other towns in Manitoba and the Northwest. What may have answered their purpose very well may not answer ours. We must expect to provide ourselves with the things we need for our prosperity. We cannot afford to rely on Providence, especially when Providence is chiefly represented by the C. & E. railway company. It is folly to close our eyes to the fact that although the proximity of the railway station has been and is a very great assistance to this town; with the river as it is and the terminus where it is, not only is there a perpetual inconvenience and loss to us that might and should be avoided, but there is a perpetual menace to the progress and prosperity of the place. As business men looking at business matters with a business eye, it is for us to take steps to change this condition of affairs as quickly as possible; to do away with this inconvenience and menace by securing the bridging of the river and the extension of the railway either to or across the bridge. Knowing how important these matters are to us we need not expect that others will do altogether for us what they can plainly see necessity should compel us to do for ourselves. If we undertake to build a bridge the government cannot refuse us substantial assistance, and if we will pay a fair proportion of the cost of a railway extension even the C. P. R. will not—it would be dangerous to say cannot—refuse to make it. If the attainment of these objects did not absorb all our credit, there is another necessity of our situation, and that is water works, for which we will have at some time to provide, and which we need right now more than any other local improvement.

Hotel Edmonton—Superintendent Moffat, Regina; J. Gregg and wife, Dunmore; D. Hossack, Winnipeg; H. D. Johnson, H. Lindsay, M. Feehan, J. J. Bruce, J. Smith, Mrs. Fisk, Calgary.

TRAIN arrived Tuesday evening instead of Monday. On Monday morning it only got about twenty miles out from Calgary, when it became apparent that it would be impossible to get through. It returned to Calgary and the snow plow was started out on Tuesday morning to clear the track, the train following. The snow plow only came as far as Red Deer, as the snow was not so deep north of that point. It is worthy of remark that on the two occasions this year on which the services of the snow plow were required on the C. & E. line the blockade was south of Red Deer, and that there has been no hindrance to trains by snow between Red Deer and Edmonton since the road was opened.

As a result of the snowfall of Saturday and Sunday the streets are very muddy. The snow is not all gone yet from the country, but there is none on the roads. There was sleighing on Sunday and Monday. There has been very little frost with the snow and vegetables remaining in the gardens are uninjured.

The publishers of the Dominion Illustrated Monthly intend issuing a very handsome Christmas number about the end of November. It will be a large work, comprising literary articles by prominent Canadian "litterateurs," all richly illustrated, and supplemented by three large colored works of art, one of which—"The Rise and Fall of a Canadian Politician,"—is bound to be a great hit. We await the publication of this holiday issue with much interest, and feel confident that it will be a brilliant success.

The department of interior has commenced actions at law against several ranching companies of Southern Alberta, who are holding large leases without fulfilling the prescribed conditions. The present policy of the government is to discourage these large leases in favor of small fenced leases and homesteaders. This is the policy for which the Macleod Gazette has contended for years.

Regina Standard: Mr. Cayley is electioneering in Wallace. It is reported that Mr. Haultain went through to the same destination on Monday night. The movements of Cayleyites indicate that a bye-election is at hand. The Standard also says that Messrs. Mowat and Davidson are electioneering there. Dr. Patrick, who opposed the late member at the last election, will be the probable candidate.

At a teachers' convention held in Brandon recently, a Mr. Maguire read a paper on the advisability of educating children for the farm rather than from it, as is the tendency at present. Mr. Maguire has a level head. The idea is original, although to say so is to throw a pretty heavy brick at the alleged educationalists of this great Dominion from end to end. We want to hear from Mr. Maguire again.

Regina Standard: They have a sprinter in Calgary. Edmonton has one too. We have a boy in Regina that we would like to pit against either of them for fun or marbles. We never gamble.

ROBBERY AND ARREST.

The bar-room of the Queen's Hotel was entered by burglars on Wednesday morning, some time between 2 and 6:30 a.m., and two valises belonging to J. R. Miqueloa and Jas. Peters respectively and 500 cigars taken. Nearly all the drawers in the room had been pulled out and searched, without anything of value having been found. The till which contained about $25 cash was overlooked. Entrance to the room had been effected by the removal of a large pane of glass, which was done by cutting away the putty from the outside with a knife. Two recent arrivals named respectively W. D. Costly and F. Cole were suspected of the robbery. They had crossed the river in the morning to catch the train carrying two valises. Sgt. Dunning followed them and before noon arrested Cole at the station. They had missed the train and hired a rig from W. Mavor to drive to Leduc. Cole had driven back to the station for the valises while Costly waited for him at Mavor's. The cigars, a revolver, liquor tester and some letters which they had stolen from the Queen's were found in the valise seized with Cole. Sgt. Dunning drove out to Mr. Mavor's and arrested Costly there. Both men are now in the lock up, waiting their preliminary examination. They are wanted in Calgary for robbing a valise there and C. P. R. detective Hossick arrived on Tuesday night with a warrant for their arrest. One of the men was in Edmonton two years ago, wiring chairs.
